Suggestions To Avoid Polio

The Virginia State Department of Health, in cooperation with the U. S. Public Health Service, has issued timely information on polio. Lacking specific control means, attention should be focused on the following general precautions, especially for children:

1. Avoid unnecessary crowds.
2. Continue normal activities but avoid exhausting activities.
3Emphasize cleanliness.
4. When ill, put patient to bed and call the doctor.

5. Remember that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will continue to assist the family in procuring prompt hospitalization.

BorderCrossing Permits For Tobacco Curers

Border crossing permits for those tobacco curers who plan to go to Canada this summer will be issued by local Virginia State Employment Offices this season. Curers who are selected by the Canadian growers will receive an application form directly from the office of the Canadian Employment Service. This form will then be taken to his nearest employment service local office and obtain in exchange for it a border crossing permit. Workers should refrain from traveling to the Canadian border without the necessary permits. For further information contact the Virginia State Employment Office in Farmville.

Chairman Bennett Harding Gives Rules For Safety On The Farm

Every farmer and his family have hundreds of different farm jobs to perform, each requiring knowledge and skill. Last year thousands of farm people were killed or injured in doing those things, merely because they or someone else failed to do simple things the right way.

Bennett Harding, PMA County Chairman, made that observation in calling the attention of Appomattox farmers to National Farm Safety Week, proclaimed by President Truman as the week beginning July 23, 1950.

The Appomattox PMA County Committee is joining other Federal, state and local organizations cooperating in an effort to eliminate preventable farm accidents and to make the farm safer place to live.

Mr. Harding pointed to the rules of the National Safety Council:

1. Keep walkways and steps in good repair, unobstructed and well lighted.

2. Keep ladders in good repair and easily accessible in case of emergency.

3. Always stop a machine before unclogging, oiling, or adjusting it. Keep all machine guards and safety devices in place.

4. Don't wear loose floppy clothes around machinery.

5. Start tractors smoothly and turn corners slowly—avoid ditch banks and soft ground — always hitch to the drawbar.

6. Speak to animals when approaching them. Keep them calm by acting with calm self assurance yourself.

7. Always keep bulls in safe bull pens. Never handle bulls unless they are properly restrained.

8. Know and obey all traffic laws. Stop driving if you get sleepy.

9. Keep your back straight and lift heavy loads with your leg muscles. Don't try to lift anything that is too heavy for you.

10. Use the right tools for the job. Make sure they are in good condition. Keep them in a safe place.

11. Give prompt attention to even minor injuries.

12. Keep guns unloaded except when actually using them. Treat every gun as though it were loaded. And never aim at anything you don't want to shoot.

13. Don't use kerosene to start fires. Pour kerosene or gasoline outdoors to prevent the accumulation of treacherous vapors.

Dry clean outdoors.

14. Don't smoke around the barn.

15. Never swim alone. Never dive into water without first determining its depth. Never stand up in small boats.

Other members of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell of Newport News; Mr. and Mrs.Earl Randolph and son, Jerry; and Mrs. Blanche Wiley, of Logan, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Withrop, of Charleston, W. Va., and C. W. Redding, of Richmond.

STATE POLICE REPORTS HOLIDAY ARRESTS

Richmond, July 19.- In an effort to stem the flood tide of traffic accidents predicted in Virginia during the Fourth of July holiday, 1,789 arrests and summonses were handled by the State Police alone on July 2, 3 and 4, Colonel C. W. Woodson, Jr., Superintendent, revealed today.

These, he said, were in addition to numerous warnings in cases where violations were of a minor nature or where there were mitigating circumstances and literally thousands of cases in which stranded, confused or lost motorists were aided and accidents were investigated. In spite of these efforts, eight people were killed during the four days and 13 more deaths on June 30 and July 1, when the general exodus was taking place, brought Virginia's grim traffic toll for the long holiday to 21.

Colonel Woodson stated emphatically that it was not the Department's paramount desire to make arrests but to secure voluntary observance of traffic laws by both motorists and pedestrians. However, he observed that careless or illegal operation of a motor vehicle cannot be excused on the grounds of ignorance, inattention or forgetfulness and that in these cases offenders must expect to be penalized since such action often brings death or injury to absolutely innocent persons.

Spout Spring Ball Team

There will be a baseball game between the Spout Spring Baseball Club and Pamplin at the Lee Park, Appomattox, at 8:00 P. M., Friday, July 21.

AMERICAN LEGION BASEBALL TEAM

The American Legion team from Appomattox downed Farmville in a zone baseball game Tuesday, 7 to 5. This was Appomattox's first zone game and also the first for Farmville. Appomattox is in the west zone and District 4.Each team from the west zone plays each other in a 2 out of 3 series and the winners keep advancing until a zone winner is determined and then they begin playing different districts.

Appomattox will play Farmville here Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock, in the second of the three - game series. Donations will be received at the gate to help purchase equipment.

Calvin Tanner pitched for Appomattox in Tuesday's game and went the distance. The hitting was led by Bill Jamerson. The score was tied at 5 all in the ninth when Harold Wingfield got on base on an error and on a hit-and-run play Teddy Mitchell got a base hit by short stop and both went into scoring position. Ortoway Guill laid down a perfect bunt and both runners came in and that was the ball game.

Counties Have Authority To Control Dogs

Citizens of many of the counties appear to be unaware of State law which authorizes their Boards of Supervisors to prohibit the running at large of dogs during such months as they may designate. For the purpose of this act, a dog is deemed to be running at large while roaming, running or self-hunting off the property of its owner or custodian and not under its owner's or custodian's immediate control.

Fewer than 10 counties have taken advantage of this provision although there are mounting complaints of dogs damaging farm property in the summer months. It is generally believed that dogs at large during the breeding season constitute one of the worst of all menaces to normal reproduction of the various species.

It is the duty of the game wardents to enforce this and any person who, after having been duly notified that his dog or dogs are running at large permits his dogs to do so thereafter is deemed to have violated the law and is liable to fine.

Reports come in from most sections that there are satisfactory carry-overs of most species of game, and the breeding season is critical as far as the year's increase is concerned. There can be little doubt that many nests are destroyed and many young of deer, rabbits and other species are victims of stray dogs which hunt night and day during the breeding months.

There is no statewide law on the subject in Virginia, as there is in many states, but it is definitely to the advantage of landowners and to wildlife conservation when county Boards of Supervisors exercise their right to enact such ordinances in the counties.

President Discusses War in Korea

PRESIDENT TRUMAN

In a "fireside talk" to the nation last night, President Truman sounded call to oppose aggression, and to strengthen our military establishment and home front. He cited the course of our present effort in South Korea and the efforts of the United Nations to prevent war. He indicated that many National Guard units and reserve personnel would be called to the colors. And, he warned against hoarding of commodities on the home front. Hoarding would force rationing and price control, he declared.

PRAY FOR PEACE

At a called meeting of the ministers of the churches in Appomattox, on Saturday, July 15, it was decided to issue a call to all Christians of the community and county to individually in their homes and collectively in their church pray for world peace. The ministers agreed to suggest to their members in their respective churches and through the columns of the Times-Virginian that pray for peace for at least once a day. Each of the four clergymen present said that he would announce to his congregation that the ringing of church bells and the playing of chimes should be a reminder for them to pray for peace. The preachers were of the opinion that the Iron Curtain can better be penetrated by sincere prayer than by any other means now available.

Polio Cases In Virginia Reach 85

Three polio cases are listed for Appomattox County, as the total reported in Virginia reached 85.

No new cases have been reported here this week.

Two new cases were reported yesterday at hard-hit Wytheville. A State Health Department total of 31 cases is listed for Wytheville and the surrounding county.

Of five new cases listed yesterday two were from Wytheville, one from Wythe County, one from Warwick County and one from Buchanan County.

The three reported Appomattox cases: Wayne McFadden, Mrs. J. P. Davis and Michael Isaac, are receiving hospitalization and hope is held for their recovery.

MR. G. W. ROBERTSON

Mr. George Washington Robertson died unexpectedly in a physician's office here Tuesday.Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Born October 1, 1870, he was the son of the late Eldridge and Ann Johnson Robertson, of this county. He was the oldest member of the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church.

His wife was the late Cora Vest Robertson. He is survived by the following children: two sons, James E. Robertson, of Lynchburg, and Fred E. Robertson, of Appomattox; three daughters, Mrs. Mae R. Edwards and Mrs. Nelda St. John, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. Emma R. Reynolds, of Appomattox.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 A. M. Friday from the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church, by the pastor, the Rev. J. P. Latimer. Burial will be in the family cemetery at the home place.

They will report at Spencer's Drug Store, Appomattox, at 7:15 A. M., July 26, and will go to Roanoke by Greyhound bus, for their examinations, returning at 7:02 P. M.

The Board offices are open Mondays through Fridays from 9 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.

Highway Department Makes Effort to Control Right-of-way Erosion

To check costly erosion on road side embankments, the State Highway Department during the fiscal year ended June 30 seeded 1,185 acres of right-of-way and planted 1,454 trees, 3,111 shrubs.

Some 123 projects during the year were designed to control erosion or to provide more adequate roadside drainage, the department reported.

The program was handled by the department's landscape division, but highway officials said its primary purpose was to reduce maintenance costs and to lengthen the life of Virginia's highways.

Roadside beautification was an "important by-product," they added.

When an erosion condition exists, debris is washed into roadside ditches, clogging them and causing water to back up. Frequently the water cuts under the roadway surface and brings about costly damage, the engineers explained. Inadequate drainage results in the same condition, they added.
